

Impact Assessment

Branch: Nottingham

Date of proposed changes:

On Monday 7 September 2026, this branch will relocate to The Co-operative Bank, just a 3-minute walk from our current branch.

About Coventry Building Society

Coventry Building Society is a mutual organisation owned by you, our members. Our story is a strong one: for over 140 years, we've put our members first. We keep your money safe and provide great value and service. We are also growing our membership and investing in your future, looking forward not back to stay relevant in a changing world.

In 2025, we officially completed our purchase of The Co-operative Bank. Since then, we've made great progress in bringing our two purpose-led organisations together. We've united teams and focused on our shared values. Both the Society and the Bank are driven by a deep focus on community and a commitment to doing the right thing for our members and customers.

We're bringing our Coventry Building Society products and services to The Co-operative Bank in Nottingham

We've always been proud to be at the heart of your high street.

Since The Co-operative Bank became part of the Coventry Building Society family last year, we've been working to give you more flexibility and convenience when it comes to your everyday banking needs.

To make sure we're investing in the right way and in the right places, we've taken a look at all our branches. In a few UK cities, we currently have a Coventry Building Society branch and The Co-operative Bank branch operating in close proximity.

We're therefore proposing to close one of our branches and move the full range of our products and services to the other. In some cases, this is the Society branch, in others, it will be The Co-operative Bank branch.

In the instance of Nottingham, we're proposing to move forward with The Co-operative Bank location.

We'll provide an update with any feedback we've received two weeks before the proposed closure. This will include details on how we're going to answer any concerns raised and our plans moving forward.

Key information about the Nottingham closure and relocation

On Saturday 5 September 2026 at 2pm, the Nottingham Coventry Building Society branch will permanently close. On Monday 7 September 2026, we'll welcome you to our newly refurbished The Co-operative Bank branch.

From this date, you'll be able to:

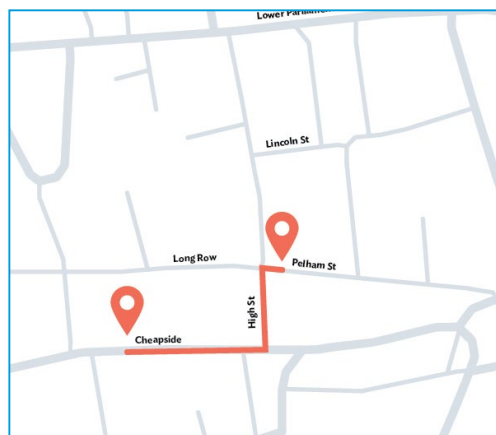

- Access Coventry Building Society's full range of products and services in The Co-operative Bank branch in Nottingham.
- See the same friendly, familiar faces you know from the Nottingham's Society branch. Colleagues from both Coventry Building Society and The Co-operative Bank will be on hand to help you.
- Receive the same warm welcome and great service we're known for.

Talking to the community

We know how important branches are to the communities they serve, and our fantastic branch colleagues make them places where people feel supported and valued. We know this move may affect some people. That's why we'll be reaching out to different groups to let them know about the change.

We'll write to all members who have transacted in the Nottingham Coventry Building Society branch within the last year to let them know about the proposed relocation. We'll provide additional support, which will include:

- Talking to those that visit the branch to let them know how to find us when we move. We'll also help them to use our telephone and digital services via our online banking and our app if they'd like to.
- We'll signpost to other local organisations, such as Citizens Advice and Age UK.

We'll write to the following stakeholders to inform them of the proposed closure – local MP, local council, Citizens Advice and Age UK.

We'll publish a summary of any feedback we receive about the proposed relocation. This will cover how we're going to answer any issues or concerns raised. We'll make this report available in the Nottingham branch and on our website.

We're committed to providing the very best branch service for our members, customers and local communities.
